

Final Policy Event

Closing the Gap on Algorithmic Discrimination

Athens, 23rd of September 2026

Tzavella 106, Piraeus 185 33
(Big Event Room)

09:45 - 10:00	Registration
10:00 - 10:15	Opening remarks & institutional greetings	Representative of the Court of Appeal of Venice - Keynote from the European Commission (to be confirmed)
10:15 - 11:30	Session I – Setting the Scene: Data Equality, Fundamental Rights and European Challenges - Fair trial and Equality of Arms in data-based proceeding: the perspective of Defense - The Europol case: procedural risks in data acquisition and analysis - Data Fragmentation as a new form of discrimination (Framework Decisions 2008/909/JHA, 2008/947/JHA and 2009/829/JHA)	Alexis Anagnostakis Barrister at Law Sergio Bianchi Agenfor International Beatrice Sperotto Court of Appeal of Venice
11:30 - 11:45	Coffee break
11:45 - 12:40	Session II – Main Findings of the DATA EQUALITY Project - Comparative research findings - Key evidence emerging from National Exercises - Lessons learned from Cascade Trainings	Silvia Pellegrini - ANCI Another partner? Another partner?

12:40 - 13:00	IAT Test to detecting and addressing bias	KMOP and Headway
13:00 - 14:00	Lunch Break
14:00 - 14:30	Session III – From Evidence to Practice: Addressing Challenges through Technologies How to legally manage AI-based tools for Investigations: two practical outcomes of the DATA EQUALITY Project	Andrea Cumini/ Leonardo Lavarini Agenfor International
14:30 - 16:00	Session IV – Round Table: Building Fairer and More Effective Justice Systems- Policy Discussion on the following topics - The new horizons of the Judicial Cooperation in the age of big data and e-evidences - The need for a European Agency implementing data exchange for Framework Decisions 2008/909/JHA, 2008/947/JHA and 2009/829/JHA - How to correct errors in algorithms in the judicial context. LLM and SLM	Barbara Benzi Prosecutor Office Milano To be confirmed Alessandro Antonucci University of Lugano
Closing Session - From Project Results to Future Action
16:00 – 16:30	Questions & answers/ Closing remarks	